

COLOR GREEN SIGN TO NEW WEST RECORDS

TO RELEASE FOOL'S PARADE JULY 12, 2024

BROOKLYN VEGAN PREMIERES "FOUR LEAF CLOVER" VIDEO TODAY

The multifaceted Los Angeles psych quartet Color Green have signed to New West Records and will release Fool's Parade on July 12, 2024. Co-produced by the band and Mike Kriebel (Osees, Wand), the 9-song set was recorded at Discount Mirrors and Golden Beat Studios in Los Angeles and mastered at Abbey Road Studios in London. It features guest appearances by members of Osees, the Nude Party, and more. New Commute previously described their sound as landing "somewhere at a mythic intersection with The Burrito Brothers and Acetone" and Fool's Parade follows their acclaimed eponymous debut released by Aquarium Drunkard/ORG Music in 2022.

In a very short time, Color Green have developed a word-of-mouth reputation as a dynamic and unpredictable live act and have shared stages with a range of groups that reflect both the sophistication and the wild malleability of their sound, including Kikagaku Moyo, Fuzz (ft. Ty Segall), The Brian Jonestown Massacre, Hiss Golden Messenger, Circles Around The Sun, and more. "When we play live, I don't really know what's going to happen," says guitarist and vocalist Noah Kohll. "You really have no idea what you're going to get with this band, which keeps things fresh for us and maybe makes the live experience special." Because they see boundless possibilities from one note to the next, Color Green anchors their music in the urgent present rather than the distant past.

Fool's Parade is a meditation on loss, grief, confusion, frustration, and the clarity to which they all lead. The album has the dynamic of a tight live set, full of ebbs and flows, highs and lows, quiet moments and reckless jams. "We shaped it to showcase our range" says guitarist and vocalist Corey Madden. "All songs were written together as a band. It's the four of us in a room and it features all of our voices." Bassist and vocalist Kyla Perlmutter adds, "What we come up with together, I don't think any of us could do by ourselves. The music we make is always surprising me."

Today, Brooklyn Vegan premiered the video for the album highlight "Four Leaf Clover." The band says, "Four Leaf Clover' examines the feeling of being weighed down by the luck of your draw, only to be failed by the sight of your own navel. Thorns can draw blood, regardless, beauty starts from the stem. The song was recorded live initially, then formed with sprinkles of guitar overdubs and finally blasted off with Tomas Dolas' (Mr. Elevator, Osees) synth wizardry. Visually it's an ode to Brion Gysin, and the vast explorations of the motif of fabricated luck and the inherent pitfalls that coincide."

Fool's Parade will be available across digital platforms, compact disc, and standard black vinyl. A limited "Orange Dream" color vinyl edition will be available at Independent Retailers worldwide, via Levitation, and is available for pre-order NOW via NEW WEST RECORDS.
