LYRICS

Here I Go

You can shove me in the water
Don't hang me out to dry
I'll never ask you why

Of course that's your business
And your are the queen
Of anywhere you're going
And every place I've seen

I'm holding on to love
Holding on to love
Walking through the door that we finally swung wide open

Woah, here I go
Oh you've got to know

I'll be counting down the days until
The power comes back on Though I may never return to who I was Before the lights were gone

If patience is a virtue
And you watch too much TV
The fine print at the ending
Is the only part you'll read
Or was that a dream

We're all of the above
Surrendering to love
Sweeping off the dust in the places we've neglected

Woah, here I go
Oh you've got to know

Should bygones be apologies that set you free?
A new address
The same old mess—
But I digress...

Woah, here I go
You've got to know

Hit Man

For this I can't depend on a loved one or a friend, she said
I need a professional tonight
I got up to leave, she was tugging at my sleeve, she said, I can't go home, I'm trying to stay out of sight

She laid out the basics

Showed me her whole plan

I tried to explain it

Don't ever tell your secrets to a stranger or you'll get scammed

We all know that criminals are always at some bar causing trouble

So if you ever need a hand

I'll be your hitman

I'll be your hitman

Do anything that I possibly can

I'll be your hitman

I never lost my aim, I treat everyone the same

I close my eyes, pretend that they're someone else

She let go of my hand, said, I completely understand if you've lost the stomach for that kind of work

Her man came through the front door

She shot me with a glance

I chased her out the back way yelling

I swear I'd never do you like that

Can't you tell I'm not some criminal running town to town starting trouble

So if you ever need a hand

I'll be your hitman

I'll be your hitman

Do anything that I possibly can

I'll be your hitman

I'll be your hit man

I'll take out that big man

Do anything I possibly can

Waiting Around

Always seem to arrive at the wrong time

Stuck behind someone who can't make up their mind

Like I've got nowhere else to go

Everybody on their phone

Put so much effort into being nice
Ask me for help, never take my advice

Nobody knows what to say
Now I find myself most days

Waiting around
Waiting around

Bumped into someone who I used to know
Nodded his head instead of saying hello

I was spaced out on a call
Guess gravity controls us all

I do the right thing more often than not Karma seems strange, but I'll give it a shot

You're holding out for something new Swear to god I'm finally through

Waiting around
Waiting around

No matter what I do I'll be waiting around

Can't Relax

Heaven help the fool who can't appreciate his time
I'll take yours and you can have everything that's mine
While the grass was getting greener
We were waiting for a sign

I can't relax yeah
My mind keeps racing around, oh baby
Baby just hold me 'til tomorrow
You calm me right down down down

Sunlight shines upon the man who sleeps through half his life

Celebrate each time the broken clock is right
You won't see him in the morning, but he comes alive at night
That's why

I can't relax yeah
My mind keeps racing around, oh baby
Baby just hold me 'til tomorrow
You calm me right down down down

Come on and say relax yeah
Your mind keeps racing around
So baby, baby let me hold you 'til tomorrow
Calm you right down down down

Human Machines

Sometimes I think I might not be biological
If you trace a feeling far enough is it just chemical?

Feels a lot like God, but it's more technical
They want your brains but not your soul

Everybody said we're coming to a head
It's a ticking ticking time bomb

Everybody knows, gets worse before it shows
We're a ticking ticking time bomb

Might not wanna face it, but you know what we've become

Human machines pushing buttons, watching screens

Digital money, think I may have to get me some Feels kind of funny, what it was and what it's become

You might be a sexual tourist, a posthuman purist, but you assure us
No one gets hurt in the virtual world, we all set our own preferences

Everybody said we're coming to a head
It's a ticking ticking time bomb

Everybody knows, gets worse before it shows
We're a ticking ticking time bomb

Might not wanna face it, but you know what we've become

Long Time Coming

17 hours and heading straight to the show
Must've been fun last night, but I can't recall
If I got to my hotel at all or where my bags are at
But I still know how to sing and how to play so I got that

It's been a long time, but I'm coming back for your love

Worked up a sweat from running late to the plane
They went through my bags but didn't find the cocaine
I ran backwards down the escalator when I saw the dogs
They were sniffing for a bomb and I was living through a fog

It's been a long time, but I'm coming back for your love
Straight away back to you, see I always come through

Sharing a heartbreak hotel somewhere up in the hills
It was taking a while to come down off of the pills

It's been a long time, but I'm coming back for your love
Get a note to the crew
I'll be ready in two
Set me off on the loose and I'll fly

You can't run from the truth
Cause that tab's gonna come due
You can't run from the truth
But there's no telling what's true

Cut the set short last night when I took a fall
No one's surprised that I can't seem to recall Just where the hell I ended up or who I'm supposed to be

But I've still got something left to give What else you need from me?

It's been a long time, but I'm coming back for your love

Vast Sea

I hope nobody turns me in Cause you can't hide who you've been
No mess gonna clean itself
No money gonna buy you health
Does Heaven even hold a place for those of us who don't pray?

How could I know where the winds will blow?
Can't guarantee that I'll be home

Cry little girl
But don't shed a tear for me
I'll make my way across
The vast and savage sea

I hope I recognize someone
When I get to where I'm going
I hope milk and honey flow like rivers used to here
And if they do I'll send some home
I'm still following the North Star and it still shines true

Love's not guaranteed
But time dulls most pain it leaves
You can close your eyes, but then you won't see me

Cry little girl
But don't shed a tear for me
I'll make my way across

Blah Blah Blah

Old man's daily driver
Just caught on fire

There's a cloud shaped like a heart
Just let me get a headstart out to the show
Whoa whoa whoa
You said in passing I could go
Or did you ask me hoping I'd say no?

See I've got big plans out on the town and you can't keep me tied down

I've got new fans yet to be found—that's life on the rebound

It's like you're saying
BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH
At least that's what I hear when you open your mouth
We're talking past each other, but we really don't mind
Feels good to be around after so much time
Catch me on the dance floor, I've got no moves
I couldn't give a fuck, I've got nothing to prove
Just celebrating
BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH
Makes it so hard to pay attention to each other
Pick anyone you want

Fall in line like the army
Sad clown at your birthday party
Got a postcard from your sister
Still picking out pieces of glitter to this day
Hey hey hey
Thought you could travel back in time
Sleepwalk around 'til the stars align

See I've got big plans out on the town and you can't keep me tied down

I've got new fans yet to be found—that's life on the rebound

It's like you're saying
BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH
At least that's what I hear when you open your mouth
We're talking past each other, but we really don't mind
Feels good to be around after so much time
Catch me on the dance floor, I've got no moves
I couldn't give a fuck, I've got nothing to prove

Just celebrating
Makes it so hard to pay attention to each other
Pick anyone you want

Degenerate Friends

Helpless eyes
Void of form
One week they love it
The next week it's gone

And now I find
We're wasting time

Every single friend I have is a degenerate
I know it's sad but yet it's true
Come on and save me baby
When half the time turns into all the time
And I'll admit it's pretty bad, but still it's true
I'm thinking lately
Maybe
Let's let the past be passed

Restless minds
Lost and bored
Taking forever
Giving up more
They say, "try me out"

Every single friend I have is a degenerate
I know it's sad but yet it's true
Come on and save me baby
When half the time there's nothing else to lose
And I'll admit it's pretty bad the things we do
But I'm thinking maybe
Lately
Let's let the past be passed

Reckless minds

Hopeless too

Why don't you come on over and I'll share what I've got with you

Good Time Guy

I keep moving forward

You keep looking back

You like taking orders

I keep cutting slack

And I know it's easier going on chasing ghosts

If we disassociate perhaps we'll make the most of this

If you're on the ground and you need to fly, friends call me the good time guy

And I never run out of supply, come and see the good time guy

We can spend the day or spend the night, friends call me the good time guy

When there's nothing else you haven't tried, let me be your good time guy

The only one you'll ever need

You keep having bad luck

I win every bet

You take so much time and

I keep giving back

And I always know a place, anywhere you wanna be

Bet your friends in real estate will never give you that for free

If you're on the ground and you need to fly, friends call me the good time guy

I never run out of supply, come and see the good time guy

We can spend the day or spend the night, friends call me the good time guy

When there's nothing else you haven't tried, let me be your good time guy

Some days you won't like who you'll be

Won't judge you if you don't judge me

Chasing Me Away

Not sure I know how to be living without you
I've seen it all before, don't want it anymore
There's nothing that's true if it isn't about you

The sun comes up and so begins another day in time and here we find ourselves hanging on
Your love was like a wave that came and carried me ashore but disappeared into the sea again

Please don't go chasing me away

Slow down
Hold on

Cause I'm not about to be living without you
I think I'm ready for something more personal
You know you're allowed to have me to hold on to

Love has come and love has gone and people everywhere are altering the plans they've made
You can't once something's changed, but everybody wants to feel the same as then, way back when

Please don't go chasing me away

Slow down

Storm's coming through, cover your windows now
It screams through the sky, shuts off the lights
Just know when the rain comes it washes everything away in the end
New seeds start to grow

Please don't go chasing me away
