Lyrics:

Roses & Poppies

Put down your roses and bring out your poppies
I feel more blue than red tonight

Whispering pines don't mean much to you
But they're all that makes me feel home
The passing of time don't seem fast to you
But before long everything's gone

Put down your roses and bring out your poppies
I feel more blue than red tonight
Put down your roses and bring out your poppies
I feel more blue than red tonight

The south Georgia wind won't blow you to me
But it's gonna take me back home
The dust in the air and the birds in the trees
Remind me that I'm not alone

Put down your roses and bring out your poppies
I feel more blue than red tonight
Put down your roses and bring out your poppies
I feel more blue than red tonight
Put down your roses and bring out your poppies
I feel more blue than red tonight

Baby, I'm Still Right Here (With You)

I crossed the line 1000 times or more
But you still just won't walk out the door
You crossed that line too many times times two
But baby, I'm still right here with you

Sometimes you make my heart beat fast
Sometimes you make it beat real slow
Will we get to where we're going?
Baby I don't think I know

After several years of heartache
Broken bottles and some mistakes
You know we still got some more coming
If our love's a song, let's keep on humming
Let's move it along, let's keep on going
My hearts on fire, the flame keeps growing
But when it feels like there's nothing left to do
Baby, I'm still right here with you

Sometimes you make my heart beat fast
Sometimes you make it beat real slow
Will we get to where we're going?
Baby I don't think I know

Sometimes you make my heart beat fast
Sometimes you make it beat real slow
Will we get to where we're going?
Baby I don't think I know

Where We Have To Stay

Well I wonder what my daddy did today
We're still not so sure how long he's got to stay
Soon enough his hair will turn long and gray
Like the four gray walls of where he is today

Time sure passes slowly when you're locked up tight
And it don't get no faster after plenty nights
You'd think that kinda time spent would move the clock along
I wish that you were right, but you're wrong

Well I wonder what my daddy did today
We're still not so sure how long he's got to stay
Soon enough his hair will be turning gray
Like the four gray walls of where he is today

I'm sure he's probably thinking about his only son
About when I'll slow down and not have too much fun
I'm sure he's probably right and I should settle down
If not, they'll lock me up and put me down

I kept it up too long and now I'm running out
Of places I can hide, but not things to worry about
They found me hiding out down at the wrong place
You shoulda seen the look on his face

Well what should we do today?
Lord knows how long we'll have to stay
Soon enough our hair will turn along and gray
Like the four gray walls of where we are today
Like the four gray walls of where we have to stay

No Rain, No Flowers

Josephine Josephine
Do you know what I mean?
When I say that our time's runout
The water's turned off and the house has been bought
I guess we should head on back south

Where there's no rain, no flowers
It's been raining for hours
When will the blooming begin?
No pain, no power
On the eleventh hour
And the lights are all flickering

Monday morning's coming up
I think I've had too much
I guess we should have our last dance
You told me and told me, when you bought and sold me
You would not forgive me, if i wouldn't take the chance

Where there's No rain, no flowers
But it's been raining for hours
When will the blooming begin?
If there's no pain, no power
On the eleventh hour
And the lights are all flickering

But the hand on clock ain't got nowhere to go
Take another drag, maybe it'll go slower
And give us more time to say our goodbyes
Then it's back to the garden again

Where there's no rain, no flowers
It's been raining for hours
When will the blooming begin?
No pain, no power
On the eleventh hour
And the lights are all flickering
And the hand on the clock keeps ticking

Moving On (Without You)

The city's so much colder in the morning
When you're walking back home all alone
And your eyes look so much clearer in the photo on my phone
Then they did when you said that you were moving on

Moving on to a place where our love is no more
I thought we'd won the battle, but I guess we lost the war
Although our world is ending
I'll pretend I'm doing fine
Cuz it's another night without you, with you on my mind

All around me bombs are dropping
And I've started losing more than ground
I'll throw up that white flag and watch you get the crown
This war of love is over
But who knows what's in store
Cuz you've moved on a thousand times before

Moving on to a place where our love is no more
I thought we'd won the battle but, I guess we lost the war
Although our world is ending
I'll pretend I'm doing fine
Cuz it's another night without you, with you on my mind
Cuz it's another night without you, with you on my mind

Who's Laughing Now?

Too many things you've said have left me stranded in the cold
All those empty words have gotten old
All the times you've had to try and make things turn around

When I leave you're only gonna hear one sound

Who's laughing now? Who's laughing now?
You're gonna have to sit around and wonder how
Who's laughing now? Who's laughing now?
Well It's me little baby, yeah, I'm laughing now

I guess it must be funny all the ways a heart can bend
Without breaking over and over again
Well I don't get the humor or maybe I'm a late bloomer
But your laughs ain't gonna last much longer friend

There's no need to cry and there's no need to pout
The time has come and you're gonna have to figure it out
There'll be no more hurting, sleepless nights anymore
The time came and I walked right out the door

Who's laughing now? Who's laughing now?
You're gonna have to sit around and wonder how
Who's laughing now? Who's laughing now?
Well It's me little baby, yeah, I'm laughing now

Who's laughing now? Who's laughing now?
You're gonna have to sit around and wonder how
Who's laughing now? Who's laughing now?
Well It's me little baby, yeah, I'm laughing now
Well It's me little baby, yeah, I'm laughing loud

You Know Who

Remember when I used to dream oh so sweet
Now I'm up all night on the edge of my seat
These days loving and losing feel one in the same
But I just can't seem to remember her name

You know who (you know who)
You know who (you know who)
I've gotta get right back to you know who
Ain't no way I'll get around her
And just when I start to doubt her
My mind takes me right back to you know who

She brings me down, down to my knees
I'll do anything she wants, anything she please
Watch her dance away out of my grasp

I don't know how much longer I'll last

Cuz everything she says is as smooth as the wine
Anything to do just to make her mine
After all the other ones I've met
I just can't seem to remember to forget

You know who (you know who)
You know who (you know who)
I've gotta get right back to you know who
Ain't no way I'll get around her
And just when I start to doubt her
My mind takes me right back to you know who

Someone You Can't Move

I don't think I think much when I'm thinking of you
But I guess I've thought about enough because it's turning me blue

I don't think I dream much now that I've been dreaming of you
But you're walking around inside my head and you left me with nothing to do

I don't think I've seen much since I've been seeing you
But that's okay because I'm on my way, you know I always find something new

There ain't much to think about
There ain't much to dream about
And it's hard to get around someone you can't move

I guess it don't mean much to mean something to you
Cause you up and left me out for someone who...
Must've had some good luck or at least some good dance moves
Cuz you're theirs now and I'm still down, you know I still got nothing to do

There ain't much to think about
There ain't much to dream about
And it's hard to get around someone you can't move

There ain't much to think about
There ain't much to dream about
And it's hard to get around someone you can't move

I think I drink too much now that I've been drinking with you

Time's Standing Still

I hate to break it to ya, but I don't think I'm coming back
Spent too much time hanging on the used and discounted rack
It's nothing you've done, I just don't have no more time for that I hate to break it to ya but, I don't think I'll be coming back

Cuz you wasted my time, just for a thrill
You must've had a lot of your own time to kill
Nowhere to go, time's standing still
You wasted my time, just for a thrill

Now I'm out on my own, I'm free and having my fun
But now I've got nowhere to go, got nowhere to run
Cuz I'm sitting here alone just thinking about what I've done
I guess I'll go home now cuz nothing's free and I've had too much fun

Not saying that it was a waste of time
I don't know how to feel
When you're not mine nothing feels real
But it's too late to change now, our time's been spent
I can't take back what I did, even if it's not what I meant

I wasted your time, just for a thrill
I must've had some of my own time to kill
Nowhere to go, time's standing still

We wasted our time, just for a thrill
We must've had some of our own time to kill
There's nowhere to go, time's standing still
You wasted my time, just for a thrill

Rich Rudy

Rich Rudy, won't you buy me a drink?
I'll smile real big like I care what you think
Rich Rudy, always the same
Looking for someone to blame

Hey there Rudy, what's the fuss?
Don't you fall down in the dust
Hey there Rudy, you know me
What'll it take to make you see?

Rich Rudy, stumble out on the street
Using your hands like a second pair of feet

Rich Rudy, things never change
Still looking for someone to blame

Rich Rudy, what a piece of work
Falling down face first in the dirt
Rich Rudy, you know I'd hate to see
The things you have to see

Hey there Rudy, in the dust
Are you someone I can trust?
Hey there Rudy, you know me
What'll it take to make you see?

Hey there Rudy, what's the deal?
You don't have to cheat and steal
Hey there Rudy, will you ever see?
All the things you want to see

Stoned & Alone

Well, I'll head down to the barroom not looking for trouble
I just wanna sit around and break tiny bubbles
Then the jukebox kicks in and the room begins to spin
And I'm here alone getting stoned

Well, I tore the place down and they threw me on out
They couldn't understand what I was drinking about
So I'll catch a ride home and before I know
I'm back at home getting stoned
Yeah, I'm back at home, alone getting stoned

Got one foot on the bed and one on the ground
Anything to keep the room from spinning around
But the walls are all shaking and our love's forsaken
I'm still alone getting stoned
Yeah, I'm still alone, at home, getting stoned
